

W.I.P. presents a series of online workshops for emerging artists, where the needs of the participating artist are explored in a one on one format. Topics such as the analysis of theoretical and conceptual development of the work, portfolio design, artist statement, presentation of projects for grants, residencies, art competitions, etc ... or any other interest, the workshop will adapt to the personal interests of the participants.

Under the mentorship of artists and cultural agents with a stablished carrer in the artistic field, W.I.P. seeks to promote the professionalization of the emerging artist, under a format of transversal and dynamic work, enhancing the strengths of each participant.

How does it work?

- 4 Online sessions.
- 2 hours each session, in a 2 months period.

Each session will be held individually between the artist and his/her tutor. At the beginning of the workshop, the sessions will be planned between the tutor and the artist, according to the needs and objectives set by the participating artist.

The artist will receive theoretical and practical guides, artistic references, reading and research material, exercises related to the practice and models to follow that will benefit the development of the objectives set at the beginning of the workshop.

How to apply?

1. Choose one of the tutors to do the workshop with.
2. Send us an email to barcelona.raro@gmail.com with:
 - Contact information and brief Bio or artistic CV (Half page max).
 - Portfolio of recent work. (Max 10 images in a PDF 5MB maximum) or links to videos or similar formats.
 - What kind of project, review or follow up you would like to receive out during the workshop:
 - Deepening in conceptualization of your work. (Theoretical and practical).
 - Portfolio review and design.
 - Artist Statement.
 - Research projects, curatorial approach, archive investigation, etc ...
 - Presentation of projects to residences, grants, art contests or similar.
 - Others (specify).

How to apply?

- Name of the chosen tutor and preferred language for the workshop. (All options on our website).
- 3. Once this information is received, we will contact you to formalize the registration, and get you in contact with your tutor to start the workshop!

IMPORTANT: At the beginning of the workshop, each participant and their tutor will determine the most suitable methodology to get the most out of the stated objectives. Furthermore, the frequency and schedule established for the 4 sessions will be determined by agreement of the artist and the tutor.

Cost and Payment

Price:

- 300 €
- 250 € for Latinamerican residents.

Payment method: bank transfer.

Upon receipt of the participant's application, we will get in contact to finalize the registration process and further instructions to start the workshop.

For any questions you can contact us at barcelona.raro@gmail.com